We Are Proud of You You have acquitted yourselves with glory and have brought honor to our city.

You have been tested in the crucible of life and have stood the acid test as only real men could do.

Now that your work is finished and you are back in your own home town, we wish to extend to each and every one of you our sincere thanks for a duty nobly done. It is our earnest hope and desire that your future lives as civilians may be crowned with the same high measure of success as your military career was crowned with glory.

We Welcome You Home
